Cavotec signs long-term service agreement with COSCO Group

Cavotec has signed a service partner agreement with COSCO Group, one of the world's largest shipping companies. Based on the new long-term agreement, Cavotec will provide preventive maintenance for more than 60 ocean-going vessels equipped with Cavotec shore power systems.

Through the new partnership, Cavotec will gradually take a more comprehensive role in providing preventive maintenance to the COSCO fleet in China and Southeast Asia. Additionally, Cavotec will pilot new innovative service models with COSCO in the region.

“We’re delighted to start this new long-term partnership with COSCO. It not only strengthens our presence in Asia, but also gives us an opportunity to develop our services further to match our customers’ growing and changing service needs all across the world,” says Patrick Baudin, President Cavotec Services.

Services is a key element of Cavotec's value proposition to offer total lifecycle solutions for its customers. With some 24,000 Cavotec installations worldwide and 85 service experts located close to its customers, Cavotec provides after-sales support around the clock.
