Erik Lyrvall appointed to Cavotec's Group Management

Cavotec has appointed Erik Lyrvall, Head of Strategy and M&A, as a member of Cavotec's Group Management. Erik joined Cavotec in autumn 2024 when he took up the position of Head of Strategy.

In his role, Erik is responsible for driving the group's strategic direction, leading M&A activities, evaluating partnerships and go-to-market strategies, and recommend initiatives to enhance operational efficiency and profitability.

Before joining Cavotec, Erik served as Head of the Transformation Office at Intrum 2021–2024, where he led the group’s strategy execution and major strategic projects. Prior to that, Erik was Jr Engagement Manager at McKinsey & Company focusing on strategy and transformation projects.

He holds an MSc in Finance from Stockholm School of Economics and is born 1991.

“Under Erik’s leadership, we have conducted a thorough review of our markets, our operations and future opportunities during the year”, says David Pagels, Cavotec CEO. “With Erik joining Group Management, we strengthen our ability to implement our strategic direction and accelerate our initiatives—particularly within M&A—while continuing to build Cavotec’s position as a leading engineering company.”

Cavotec is a leading engineering company with 50 years of heritage in innovation, design, and delivery of advanced connection and electrification solutions that drive the decarbonisation of ports and industrial applications. With five decades of experience, our systems ensure safe, efficient, and sustainable operations for a diverse range of customers and applications worldwide.
